

REGISTRATION FORM

We're excited that you want to come visit our farm and meet like-minded people interested in being outside in nature and learning about local food. It is our sincere hope that you will make meaningful connections.

ITINERARY:

Arrive as early as Friday evening for settling in and a welcome social. BYOB. Saturday breakfast and lunch on your own to allow Fort McMurray participants time to drive here. Our Weed Dating event officially kicks off at 2 pm at the Farm with introductions and a farm tour from Farmer Mandy. Then, after a few instructions, participants will be split into pairs to work together and get to know each other. After 20 minutes, everyone will switch partners and spend some time chatting and working with a new person. In the evening, we will all hang out and have a hearty Farm to Table supper.

WHAT TO EXPECT:

- Meet new people while helping plant onions as well as weeding and transplanting our organic garlic crop
- Any type of Alberta weather is possible: bring rain and sun clothing and sturdy footwear
- The Crew House (accommodation) is fully set up for cooking. The Farm has no water.
- Be prepared to get a little dirt-y with a rustic farm experience

WHAT'S INCLUDED:

- Free accommodation
- An opportunity to mix and mingle with like-minded people, and a chance to learn about local food.
- A hearty supper straight from farm to table

WHAT TO BRING:

- Bug spray, sunglasses, sunscreen and a wide-brimmed hat
- Refillable water bottle, groceries for breakfast and lunch, a cooler with ice, and beverages of your choice
- A flexible and easy-going attitude! Life on a farm is always a little chaotic.

ACCOMMODATION: "I wish to.... (please check one of the following options)

- Reserve a spot in the Crew House
- Bring a tent or RV to the Farm site (power only)
- Come for the day only on Saturday (no overnight)

HOW TO FIND US:

We are located about an hour's drive NE of Edmonton, near Waskatenau, Alberta. The farm is south of Township Road 604 on Range Road 201. Address is 60328 Rge Rd 201. Here's the map: <https://goo.gl/maps/Y2UpusNNoWx> Please arrive at the Farm to check in. Text Mandy at 780-650-2047 your ETA so she can greet you when you arrive.

As this is our inaugural event, we cannot guarantee you'll meet an abundance of singles in your preferred gender and age range. We hope you'll consider it a success if you simply have a fun weekend get-away with a cool group of people.
